CONFESSION OF FAITH, COVENANT, AND ARTICLES OF PRACTICE,

ADOPTED BY THE FIRST CHURCH IN NEW-HAVEN.

CONFESSION OF FAITH.

You believe in one only living and true God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, who is a Spirit, infinite, eternal, and unchangeable, in his being, power, knowledge, presence, wisdom, holiness, justice, goodness, and truth; that it is the duty of all his intelligent creatures, to worship him in spirit and in truth; that he created all things; that he preserves and governs all his creatures, and overrules all their actions for his own glory; and that, in whatsoever comes to pass, he is accomplishing his eternal purposes, according to the counsel of his own will, in such a way that man is a free agent, and accountable for all his actions.

You believe, That God created man upright; that our first parents freely sinned and fell, and that all mankind, in a state of nature, and before regeneration by the spirit of God, are dead in trespasses and sins, and without any holiness and true love to God, and are justly exposed to all the miseries of this life, and the pains of hell forever.

You believe, That God in his mercy has not left all mankind to perish forever, but out of his mere good pleasure, has from all eternity elected some to everlasting life; and that he has covenanted to deliver them from sin and misery, and to bring them into a state of salvation by a Redeemer.

You believe, That the only Redeemer of God's elect is the Lord Jesus Christ, who is very God and very man; that, taking upon him our nature, he suffered and died on the cross; that he arose from the dead, and ascended into heaven, where he ever liveth to make intercession for us : that he alone has made an atonement for sin : and that, without a special interest in this atonement, there is no salvation.

You believe, That without a change of heart, wrought in the unregenerate by the special divine agency of the Holy Spirit, who is very God, no one can be an heir of eternal life ; and that the soul, which is once made partaker of renewing and saving grace, will never be permitted so to fall away as finally to perish.

You believe, That adoption, repentance, justification, sanctification, and perseverance, are not bestowed as the reward of any merit, in him who receives them, but all flow from the free and sovereign gift and grace of God.

You believe, That there will be a general resurrection, of the righteous and the wicked ; and a general judgment, at which, all the righteous shall be admitted to everlasting happiness, and all the wicked sentenced to misery without end.

You believe, That the Lord's Supper, and Baptism, are Sacraments of the New Testament : and that baptism is to be administered to unbaptised adults, who profess their faith in Christ, and to the infant children of any, who are members of the Church.

You believe, That the Scriptures, of the Old and New Testament, are given by inspiration of God, and are the sufficient and only rule of faith and practice.

Thus in the presence of Almighty God, you solemnly profess and believe.

COVENANT.

You do now, in the presence of God and this assembly, solemnly, and, as you hope, with sincerity of soul, dedicate yourself to God in Christ, humbly confessing and repenting of your sins.

You solemnly avouch the Lord Jehovah to be your God, the Lord Jesus your Redeemer, and the Eternal Spirit your Sanctifier.

You covenant and promise. That by the strength of Divine Grace, you will make it your endeavour, to walk worthy of the Christian vocation.

You also covenant with this Church, That you will walk with it, in Christian fellowship, and in a due attendance upon all the institutions of Christ.

Thus, in presence of God, you solemnly covenant and promise.

Then doth this Church likewise promise you, that, in the strength of Divine grace, we will walk towards you, in all Christian watchfulness and charity. Amen.

ARTICLES OF PRACTICE.

ART. I. All Delegates chosen by this Church to attend any Ecclesiastical Council, shall be chosen by ballot.

ART. II. No person, who has never before made a profession of religion, shall be admitted a member of this Church, unless, in the judgment of Christian charity, there is reason to believe that he is a Christian.

2d. In all cases of private offence, when the measures prescribed in the 18th of Matthew's Gospel shall have been taken, complaint may be made to this Committee instead of the Church.

3d. It shall be the duty of the Committee to ascertain the facts in each case which may come before them, and to make report to the Church, both of the facts and of the measures proper, in their opinion, to be taken in the case.

4th. This Committee shall have power to summon before them all members of this Church, accused of any offence, to examine them, and to give them such brotherly counsel, as may, in their judgment, tend to reclaim such offenders.

5th. This Committee shall have power to call upon any of the Brethren of the Church to aid them in the discharge of their duties.

6th. This Committee shall meet statedly once a month, and oftener, as cases may require.

But this Church declare, that in appointing the Committee aforesaid, they do not discharge, or lessen the obligations of the individual members of this Church, to watch over, admonish, and reprove one another.
